

The Psychiatric Assistance Line certifies that has participated in the live activity titled,

Pediatric Psychopharmacology and Mental Health Treatment Education for Prescribers – Suicide Prevention Training

February 17, 2022 – 8am-3pm

6.25 hours live streamed educational program

PAL History and Services, DHS Protocols presenter: Sarah Baker, LICSW; Jade Mueller, LICSW

- Describe need for access to MH clinicians, shortage of caps and psychotherapy.
- Describe MN investment in increasing PCPs' access to MH clinicians.
- Learn types of services that PAL offers.
- Access DHS protocols and describe how to find providers located on PAL website.

Fast-TrackerMN.org Overview presenter: Linda Vukelich

- Demonstrate proficiency in accessing PAL and Fast-Tracker online tools.
- Relate when to use the services and how to access information about the services to disseminate to colleagues and patients.

Psychopharmacology (Antidepressants, Stimulants)..... presenters: Adam Klapperich, DO; Joshua Stein, MD

- Provide overview of frequently used stimulants and antidepressants for the treatment of mi in youth and adults

Psychopharmacology (Non-stimulants)..... presenters: Adam Klapperich, DO; Joshua Stein, MD

- Provide overview of frequently used second generation antipsychotics and mood stabilizers for the treatment of mi in youth and adults.

Metabolic Monitoring presenters: Adam Klapperich, DO; Joshua Stein, MD

- Describe appropriate monitoring for metabolic syndrome, and key findings.

Pharmacogenomics Testing..... presenters: Adam Klapperich, DO; Joshua Stein, MD

- Discuss considerations for appropriately including pharmacogenomics in treatment planning.

QPR: Question Persuade Refer. The “CPR” for those who are suicidal. presenter: Joshua Stein, MD

- Explore MN based statistics regarding alarming trend of increased suicide completions.
- Create “gatekeepers” who can identify and intervene when people are at risk.

How, not the why: Lethal Means Reduction. presenter: Joshua Stein, MD

- Reduce access to lethal means in a clinical setting.
- Provide specific resources when higher level intervention is necessary.